The Dorian Grey Gallery presents:

NO RULES

The women of East Ninth Street, 1951-2011

May 19th – June 19th, 2011

Opening reception: Thursday May 19th 2011, from 6-9p, RSVP

EAST VILLAGE, NY- Borrowing from the famous quote by Helen Frankenthaler, “There are no rules. That is how art is born, how breakthroughs happen...” the Dorian Grey Gallery is proud to present our next exhibition: NO RULES, East 9th Street Revisited, 1951-2011. This exhibition celebrates the 60th Anniversary of the ground breaking East Ninth Street Show by featuring many of the pioneering women who participated in that historic group show here on E. 9th Street in 1951. Together works by these legendary painters are displayed alongside the next generation of female artists who continue the tradition of going against the “rules” of painting and sculpture. A diverse selection of work are presented by such noted talents such as Elaine deKooning, Perle Fine, Helen Frankenthaler, Grace Hartigan, Joan Mitchell, Claire Falkenstein, Judith Pfaff, Erin Hudak, Cecile Brunswick, Rebecca Alston, Shellie Schneider, Rachelle Krieger, and Susan Libby Siegel.

Please RSVP & join us May 19th as we commemorate this exciting exhibition.

The Dorian Grey Gallery has become the East Village's most exciting art destination. The gallery represents established and emerging artists while continuing to be the premier exhibition space dedicated to displaying art that continues to define the historic East Village art scene. A majority of the venues feature works of art that capture the diverse heritage of the East Village including the early beat poets, abstract expressionists and more recently, street and graffiti themed works. The Dorian Grey Gallery offers a diverse selection of exemplary art presented in an intimate and informative environment.
